This agreement is subject to the current Gunslinger's Guidelines Edition, or any addendums issued by CFDA. Addendums can be found on the CFDA Website at www.cowboyfastdraw.com.

The following items apply to this agreement:

- CFDA Contest Rules and Guidelines. The host club hereby agrees to provide all equipment, staff and contest areas; an to abide by the CFDA Gunslinger's Rules & Guidelines Latest Edition for contest rules, regulations and policies set forth by CFDA management.
- CFDA Membership: All contest participants must be current members of CFDA to participate. It shall be the host's responsibility to check membership cards (possession of a Life Member's Badge is acceptable.) Hosts can collect outstanding dues and remit them to CFDA for expired members. If a contestant does not have a membership card and claims to be a CFDA Member in Good Standing, the Host can rely on the contestant's word, but should make a note of this, since Host will be billed for any non-members that are allowed to compete in any Titled Championship. If the non-member claimed to be a member in good standing, after being asked by the Host, then CFDA Management will assume responsibility for collecting any unpaid dues.
- Insurance: CFDA agrees to provide insurance for Titled Event for dates of said contest. It is the host's responsibility to fill out and submit to the CFDA office an Additionally Insured Application to the CFDA office at least three weeks prior to the contest. The will include the property owner's name, physical address of the contest and any other information needed on the form.

4. CFDA Logo: Use of the CFDA logo is allowed for promoting the event. It SHOULD be used for flyers, trophies, plaques, buckles, applications, brochures, and advertisement as long as they meet all requirements set forth in the Gunslinger's Guidelines.
5. CFDA Championship Titles are the intellectual property of CFDA. CFDA retains all rights to regulate, administrate and promote the sport of Cowboy Fast Draw.
6. Contest Dates: Are on a first come, first serve basis; and according to "CFDA Titled Championships" Section in the latest Gunslinger's Rule and Guidelines.
7. Host Will Provide:
 - An actual ad, or electronic information for Hannah Calder to make your ad to info@cowboyfastdraw.com, State Championship ¼ page, Territorial ½ Page.
 - Send results to info@cowboyfastdraw.com in an electronic format can be edited, i.e. Rich Text or Word, within 10 days of the completion on the match.
 - It is the host's responsibility to supply an article, along with digital pictures for publication in the Gunslinger's Gazette. Clubs are encouraged to post pictures from their event on www.cowboyfastdraw.com.
 - The Host is advised to use the power of the CFDA Telegraph to promote their event.
8. CFDA will provide:
 - 2 Championship buckles, for overall Men's and Ladies' Champion.
 - 1 Six-Gun ($500 - $600 value), 2 for Territorial Championships. Host may provide an FFL to CFDA at least 3 weeks in advance to have the firearm transferred to the host's FFL holder before the event, otherwise CFDA will ship firearms directly to certificate winners. No firearms will be transferred until 100% of the Sanction Fee is paid. CFDA reserves the right to determine which firearm(s) are used. Host may award the firearm or use the firearm to raise funds as they determine.
 - 2 Paid Entries dedicated to the Top Resident Male and Female Competitor to represent their State or Territory in the Fastest Gun Alive – World Championship of Cowboy Fast Draw. Note: These may only be transferred to the next highest placing resident (2nd & 3rd Place ONLY) in the case that the highest placing residents (in top-down order of placing) cannot attend the World Championship.
 - Listing on Events Page in Gunslinger's Gazette
 - ¼ Page Ad (1/2 Page Territorial) in Gazette for at least one issue before the contest.
 - Published article and photos, subject to space limitations and editing. (Provided by host)
 - Listing on CFDA Website, with information and application downloads
 - CFDA Representative or Designated CFDA Regulator.
 - Insurance, unless the club provides their own policy.
9. If the host requests a CFDA Representative from out of their area, the Host will provide one free entry fee and lodging for the CFDA Representative. The Director of CFDA or Regulator Administrator may appoint a CFDA Regulator to represent CFDA.

PENALTIES: If this contract is not upheld by the host club, a representative of CFDA has the authority to remove a sanction, suspend insurance coverage and/or refuse future sanctions applied for by the host club.
