CFDA AFFILIATED CLUB STANDARD RENEWAL FEE AND PAYMENT:

Annual Affiliation Fee is $150.00 per club; plus $325.00 (As of 2025) for clubs participating in the CFDA/ Lockton $1 Million Shooting Club Liability Insurance Program; for a Total of $475.00. The $325.00 Insurance Portion covers up to 12 club members. For more than 12 members the cost is an additional $12 per additional member. (Note: Affiliation Club Insurance Fees are subject to change without notice subject to Annual Insurance Premiums)

PRORATED FEES FOR NEW CLUBS AFFILIATING DURING THE YEAR:

There is really no reason for any club not to affiliate anytime during the year. CFDA welcomes new clubs at any time, by providing these easy to calculate Pro-Rated Affiliation Fees.

1. Since the Annual Base Affiliation Fee for U.S. Clubs is $150, that calculates to $13.00 per full month.
2. For Clubs wishing to join the CFDA Affiliated Club Liability Insurance Program, the 2025 Insurance portion of the Affiliation Fee is $325, that calculates to $28 per full month.
3. Combined Affiliation Fee: $13 + $28 = $41 per full month.

Example: For a club wishing to affiliate on July 15th, they would submit a partial year's fee for full months of August, September, October, November and December; or 5 full months.

If a new club opts out of the CFDA Shooting Club Liability Insurance Program, it would be 5 x $13 per full month = $65. But they must still provide an Additional Insured Shooting Club Liability Insurance Certificate naming CFDA as an Additionally Insured.

If a new club opts in to the NRA/CFDA Endorsed Shooting Club Liability Insurance Program it would be 5 x $41 per full month for a TOTAL PRO-RATED FEE = $205

New Clubs affiliating after September 30th can affiliate for the following year with one application, at the discretion of CFDA Management.

CLUBS PROVIDING THEIR OWN INSURANCE:

All CFDA Affiliated Clubs in the United States must have $1 Million of liability insurance. If clubs are not participating in the CFDA/Lockton Insurance Program, they must name CFDA as an additionally insured on their policy and provide a certificate (see details on application). Their annual fee is set at $150.00, but New Clubs affiliating during the year are Pro-Rated at $13 per month, according to the previous paragraph.

If an Established Shooting Range wishes to Host a CFDA Affiliated Club on their premises, all CFDA needs is an Insurance Certificate naming Cowboy Fast Draw Association, Non-profit Organization as an Additionally Insured. (For More Information See CFDA Club Affiliation Agreement)

NOT A FRANCHISE:

CFDA Affiliated Clubs are not franchises of CFDA, they have no guaranteed area in which to operate. They may conduct their affairs across State lines as they see fit. There is no limit to how many CFDA Affiliated Clubs are in a City, County or State.

SAFETY RULES & FACILITIES:

All CFDA Insured events Class A - C, must follow CFDA Rules, unless otherwise approved by CFDA Management, and ALL events MUST Follow CFDA Safety Rules.

All CFDA Affiliated Clubs should assess their shooting locations, including exterior and interior walkways, stairs, platforms for trip hazards and other obstacles. Lighting and other electrical items should also be checked for safety. All items should conform to local building codes. CFDA does not inspect facilities and assumes no liability for their safety or code compliance.

CFDA MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS FOR CLUBS

If only the people that joined CFDA were the ones who competed in Titled Championships, then CFDA could not be here to serve the needs of the sport and build it for the future. It is our hope that most people who enjoy the Cowboy Fast Draw and what it stands for would want to be part of the organization that makes it all possible.

Many clubs insist that new members join CFDA immediately and find that the more new club members are involved with the sport itself, the more that member becomes a solid part of their club.

CFDA membership is required to compete in Class A through C Events. It's also required that all CFDA Affiliated Club members be members of CFDA.

Clubs have latitude in classifying participants of their Class D club activities as, other than members.

Clubs may have Associates, Supporters, and Sponsors. They may also have a trial period for new (probationary) members. However, once someone decides to actually join a club as a full member, they must also be a member of CFDA, according to long standing CFDA rules.

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT CLUBS & MEMBERSHIPS

Why Affiliate a CFDA Club?

Club Affiliation is an excellent value considering having access to an affordable Insurance Program that we make available for our clubs. If a club tried to independently acquire such insurance it would cost several hundred dollars per year alone, most of the small clubs could not afford to operate without the CFDA Insurance Program. CFDA also provides ongoing support in helping your club grow. This can include press releases, training, and referral of new members by CFDA Staff. Not to mention access to additional promotional materials like CFDA Brochures and copies of the Gunslinger Gazette.

How Can CFDA Help?

We offer advice on how to promote your club, how to start a club, timing equipment, shooting equipment, rule interpretations and many other areas. Our mission is to build clubs throughout our sport.

Why are U.S. Marshals required to be Life Members of CFDA?

Life members represent CFDA to their clubs and their clubs to CFDA, they have a lot of influence on organizational decisions and rules. Life Membership illustrates a vested interest in the organization.
